4. Trustee Gutierrez introduced the following resolution as amended at the Intergovernmental and Intercollegiate Affairs and Advancement Committee meeting on February 7, 2012:

BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE NASSAU COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES APPRECIATES AND RECOGNIZES THAT THE PROPOSAL INCLUDED IN THE EXECUTIVE BUDGET FOR FISCAL YEAR 2012-2013 FOR MAINTAINING THE LEVEL OF STATE BASE AID FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGES IS AN EXCELLENT STARTING POINT FOR FURTHER DISCUSSIONS ON ENHANCING THAT AID, AND

Seconded by Trustee Berktas. Motion carried 8-0.

Dr. Astrab reported on the following items:

The board minutes will be distributed with the watermark “DRAFT”; upon approval of the Board of Trustees, the approved minutes will be distributed.

The Crime Alert notification regarding the incident on February 8, and emphasized the importance that we need to look out for each other and to keep our eyes and ears open.

Reggie Tuggle, Dan Fisher and Dr. Astrab were in Albany on Monday, February 6 for SUNY Day and had the opportunity to participate in activates with community colleges and universities around the State. They met with a number of our State Senators and Assemblymen, and addressed them with our concerns and needs in moving forward. It was a positive day and an excellent turnout. The Chancellor and the SUNY system are working with the Governor in moving forward. NCC shared a table with Suffolk County Community College to establish a presence while, at the same time, minimizing the number of staff traveling to Albany. NCC and SCCC communicated a uniform front for Long Island and had handouts emphasizing our distinguish faculty, chancellor winners and other information on the College. It was a terrific day.

Dr. Astrab spoke of the concerns that have been raised by his comments in the first issue of the Administrative newsletter, Channels. He indicated that in sending out his vision in the format of Channels, he assumed that people would recognize that it reflected his efforts over the past two years to learn about the College in greater depth, which included his work, along with the work of others, in building the Strategic Plan on the sub-committee level of the Academic Senate’s Planning Committee. In light of his work along with the work of others as part of this process, Dr. Astrab indicated that he thought that people would understand that his comments in Channels regarding his vision were formulated in the context of the foundation provided by this earlier work and built upon it. Dr. Astrab stated that he certainly, therefore, did not mean to ignore or be dismissive of the work of the Planning Committee or its sub-committee. He indicated that he recognizes and values the contributions of all who were part of that effort. He stated that there was no intent on his part to fail to appreciate the work of all who contributed to the earlier strategic planning effort. He added that it was his goal to give information as to where he feels we’re at, how we’re going to move forward together and how we can we can build cooperatively and collectively on the work that has been done before.
