COMMITTEE.

Dr. Gardyn opened up the floor for discussion regarding the resolution for the Presidential search.

Trustee Cornachio indicated that he had real problems with the presidential search committee resolution as it appeared in the Calendar and as it was amended in the Personnel Committee. He was concerned that the process by which the resolution was drafted did not reflect the collaboration of Board members. He also was concerned that although the resolution included the "major College groups" and "one or two minor College groups," it did not include other minor College groups. He contended that if some minor College groups were represented on the search committee than "all" such groups should be represented on the search committee. In addition, Trustee Cornachio indicated that if the ungraded administrators are to be represented on the search committee, it should be the ungraded administrators and not the Chair of the Board who should choose who that representative should be. Similarly, he indicated that the representatives of the Presiding Officer and the Minority Leader of the County Legislature should be chosen by the members of the respective caucuses and not by the Presiding Officer or the Minority Leader. Trustee Cornachio also indicted that he opposed the community representative being chosen by the Chair of the Board of Trustees and he opposed the chair of the search committee not being a current member of the Board of Trustees. Trustee Cornachio stated that he had a number of other comments and criticisms with respect to the search committee resolution and that the best approach would be to "listen to people who make up this college community, get input from people outside the community, form a committee based on those recommendations and suggestions and then proceed from there."

Trustee Gardyn responded that he recognized Trustee Cornachio's experience on the Board. He also indicated that the proposed resolution was presented as "a template for discussion...that was based on the previous search committees." With respect to the chair of the search committee not being a current member of the Board, Trustee Gardyn indicated that he thought it was appropriate for Mr. Leventhal, who the proposed resolution designated as chair was an appropriate choice he was an ex-trustee here at the college "who has an avid interest in the success of the college and also has an avid interest on the outside – very well respected."

Chair Gardyn requested a motion to table the resolution on the presidential search. Trustee Weiss moved the motion; seconded by Trustee Drucker. Motion carried 6-1.

Report of the Acting President
Acting President Saunders noted that it was a year ago today that Superstorm Sandy hit Long Island and in spite of all of the challenges that we have had to face as an institution the College moved forward and played a critical role in helping the region to during the storm and during the recovery period.
Trustee Gardyn concurred in Acting President Saunders' assessment and asked for a moment of silence to express our gratitude to all of those who helped to assist the victims of Superstorm Sandy.

Speakers

Natalia deCuba, a LINCC lecturer [Language Immersion at Nassau Community College] Program discussed value of the College's LINCC program. She described the goal of the LINCC program as helping English language learners who still need to acquire some academic English to be able to enter the College as freshmen. She stated, "We really represent the new diversity of Nassau County – the future of what we are going to be. We need these students to be getting their education so they can move on and we welcome you to come and visit us and see what we do because we are very, very innovative and our program gets emulated in other places."

Maryanne Kildare, a LINCC lecturer, also discussed the value of the LINCC program to the students and to the College. She stated, "We are recognized locally and internationally as the cutting edge program and we are top notch instructors and we invite you, we really do invite you to come to our program."

Dr. Edward Boyden, Chair of the Academic Senate, read the following resolution that was approved on October 1, 2013 by the Academic Senate with respect to the presidential search:

Whereas, the selection of Nassau Community College’s next Chief Executive Officer is critical to its future as an institution, and

Whereas, the Nassau Community College Federation of Teachers Collective Bargaining Agreement establishes the Academic Senate of Nassau Community College as the body that shall provide the college community with voice in general educational goals and policies as well as other matters of concern to the college community, (Section 19-1) and

Whereas, the State University of New York Guidelines for Presidential Searches for Community Colleges states that “Experience has shown that the pressure on trustees and search committee members, real or imagined, can cloud an open search when there is an internal candidate who is at the same time chief executive. Therefore, we recommend that temporary or interim appointees not be candidates for the permanent position, “(section V: Interim Leadership), and

Whereas, at the December 1, 1981 meeting of the Nassau Community College Board of Trustees, Acting President James Fitzgibbons stated that he would not be a candidate for the position of president, but would assist the board in its search for a president, and

Whereas, on May 16, 2013, the Academic Department Chairs recommended that if Dr. Saunders is to remain Acting President, he must be removed from consideration from future searches; or, should he wish to remain a candidate for President of the college, a new and temporary Interim President should be appointed until the presidential search is completed, and

Whereas, the Nassau County Code of Ethics prohibits any officer or employee of the county from using county resources in furtherance of his or her business, professional or political activities or interests, (Section 2218 of the Nassau County Charter, as amended by Local Law 4-2007), and
Whereas, all officers and employees of Nassau County, whether paid or unpaid, are subject to the county Code of Ethics,

Whereas, permitting an Acting or Interim President, Officer-in-Charge or other temporary Chief Executive Officer to apply for the position of president might tend to create the impression that such temporary chief Executive Officer was using county resources in furtherance of his or her professional activities or interests, and

Whereas, this might place the college and/or its officers or employees at risk of legal liability by creating the impression that they had violated the Nassau County Code of Ethics, and

Whereas, the Middle States Commission on Higher Education is Nassau Community College’s accrediting body, and

Whereas, the Middle States Commission requires accredited institutions to adhere to certain standards in order to remain accredited, and

Whereas, the Middle States Standard Six, on Integrity, requires accredited institutions to have fair and impartial practices in the hiring, evaluation and dismissal of employees, (Middle States Commission on Higher Education, Characteristics of Excellence in Higher Education, 2011 revision, p. 22), and

Whereas, Middle States Standard Six requires an accredited institution to have sound ethical practices, including the avoidance of conflict of interest or the appearance of such conflict in all its activities and among all its constituents, and

Whereas, permitting an Acting or Interim President, Officer-in-Charge or other temporary Chief Executive Officer to apply for the position of president creates an unavoidable conflict of interest for employees of the college who are involved in the search, particularly those not protected by tenure or collective bargaining agreements, and

Whereas, such a conflict of interest might jeopardize the college’s accreditation by violating Middle States Standard Six, and

Whereas, a successful presidential search must draw on the largest and broadest possible pool of highly qualified applicants, and

Whereas, permitting an Acting or Interim President, Officer-in-Charge or other temporary Chief Executive Officer to apply for the position of president might give that individual an unfair and unreasonable advantage over highly qualified external candidates, thus discouraging them from applying, and

Whereas, permitting an Acting or Interim President, Officer-in-Charge or other temporary Chief Executive Officer to apply for the position of president might create the impression that the search is merely pro forma, thus discouraging highly qualified external candidates from applying, be it therefore

Resolved, that the Academic Senate of Nassau Community College strongly urges the board of Trustees to adopt the following rule for this and all future presidential searches at Nassau community College:
“No Acting or Interim President, Officer-in-Charge or other temporary Chief Executive Officer regardless of title shall be permitted to apply for the position of president; any such temporary Chief Executive Officer who wishes to be considered for the permanent position of president must resign his or her position as Chief Executive Officer”

Dr. Boyden inquired as to the appropriate method for members of the campus to express their views to the Board regarding the presidential search. Trustee Gardyn responded that comments should be directed to the secretary to the Board, Anne Brandi, and she would distribute them to the members of the Board.

Valarie Lagakis, Department of Reading and Basic Education, asked that the Women's Faculty Association also be represented on the presidential search committee.

Phyllis Kurland, Student Personnel Services, spoke on behalf of the Jewish Studies Faculty and asked that the Jewish faculty be represented on the search committee.

Chair Gardyn announced the next Capital and Finance BOT Committee meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, December 17, 2013 at 5:00 p.m. followed by the Full Board meeting. The Board will open the public session at 6:30 p.m. and resume the public session at approximately 8:00 p.m.

Chair Gardyn requested a motion to adjourn the meeting. Trustee Weiss moved the motion; seconded by Trustee Cornachio. Motion carried 7-0.

Meeting adjourned at 9:05 p.m.
