EMT-BASIC REFRESHER COURSE

Nassau Community College, in partnership with the Nassau County Emergency Medical Services Academy, is offering an Emergency Medical Technician-Basic (EMT-B) refresher course. This course is a 21 session course, designed for currently certified EMTs to renew their certification in order to provide urgent care at an emergency site or in an ambulance during hospital transport. Students enrolled in this course will receive updated training on all necessary emergency medical care skills. The course will also include Basic Life Support CPR/AED (as required by New York State). You can attend a refresher course up to 9 months before your EMT card expires.

Note: Individuals who are seeking reciprocity from another state may enroll if they have received a letter from NYS EMS.
